

OCT 27 2017.

Randall (Randy) and Michelle Chopp reside at 8725 Randall Drive NW, Gig Harbor, WA 98332. They purchased this home from Ray Baker and Jennifer Kwon in March, 2017. (See Att. A, deed and real estate estate excise tax affidavit.)

In September, 2017, they sold their house at 9025 Prentice Ave, Gig Harbor, WA 98332, to Troy and Tamra Woodman. (See B, deed and real estate excise tax affidavit.) Tamra Woodman is now registered to vote at 9025 Prentice Ave, Gig Harbor.

Michelle Chopp is still registered at 9025 Prentice Ave, but no longer lives there.

Randy Chopp has been registered to vote at 3123 56th Street NW, Gig Harbor, WA 98332, for years. This address is a commercial strip mall. His business, CMC Framing, may have been located at this address at one time, however, the Assessor's website indicates that Narrows Passage Windows and Doors is located at this commercial address. Either way, it is a commercial address and Randy lives at 8725 Randall Dr. NW.

Clapp Michelle B last name first middle 9025 Prentice, Gig Harbor, WA 98332
 address (as registered to vote) city / ZIP

basis of challenge provide evidence to support your challenge

The challenged voter:

- is not a U.S. Citizen
- will not be at least 18 years old by the next election
- was convicted of a felony and has not yet had his or her rights restored
- has been judicially declared ineligible to vote due to mental incompetency
- does not reside at the address listed on his or her voter registration. Provide voter's actual residential address if known.

How to Challenge a Voter Registration

general information

A voter registration is presumptive evidence of a person's right to vote. A challenge may be dismissed if proper evidence isn't supplied. A challenge may only be filed for the reasons listed on this form. Any other reason is not considered to be legitimate grounds for a challenge.

The challenge process is established in RCW 29A.08.810 through RCW 29A.08.850.

filing a challenge

Registered voters and county prosecuting attorneys may file a voter registration challenge. A challenge must be based on the challenger's personal knowledge.

Submit a completed challenge form, and supporting documentation, to the county elections department where the challenged voter is registered. Determination of the challenge is based entirely on evidence provided.

address based challenges

If you don't know the voter's actual residential address, provide evidence that you've taken ALL steps below to verify his or her residential address is incorrect.

- Send a letter with 'return service requested' to all known addresses for the voter;
- Search local telephone directories to determine whether the voter maintains a telephone listing at any address in the county;
- Search the county auditor property records to determine whether the voter owns property in the county;
- Search the statewide voter registration database to determine if the voter is registered at any other address in the state; and
- Visit the voter's listed residential address. As proof that the voter doesn't live there submit a signed affidavit from anyone who owns, manages, resides, or is employed at the address stating that, to his or her personal knowledge, the voter does not reside at the address.

A voter can maintain residency if he or she is absent due to government service, school, in prison, or because he or she is registered at a non-traditional address such as a shelter, park, motor home or marina.

deadlines

In order to affect the validity of a ballot, challenges must be filed at least 45 days before an election.

If the challenged voter registered or moved less than 60 days before an election, a challenge must be filed at least 10 days before the election or 10 days after the voter registered, whichever is later.

challenge process

Upon receipt of a challenge form, the county elections department will:

- review the form for completeness and factual basis;
- notify the challenged voter and interested parties of the challenge;
- post the challenge documents on the county elections department's website; and
- set a hearing time and date.

A voter registration challenge hearing is an administrative hearing, not a court proceeding, and is open to the public. The county elections official or County Canvassing Board will preside over the hearing. Final determination of the challenge may be appealed in Superior Court.
