Education: Graduate, Prairie College; courses in counseling

Occupation: Elementary School Teacher

Professional Qualifications: Lois worked her way through college as a secretary, switchboard operator, and book store clerk. She operated a family-owned jewelry business and was coordinator for foreign exchange student groups. State Representative, 1995-97, Lois served on the Education, Law and Justice, and Transportation Standing Committees, the Reading, Education Funding and Transportation sub-committees.

Personal Information: Married to Jerry for 39 wonderful years, Lois is mother of five and grandmother of four.

Community Involvement: Lois has been active as a volunteer for churches; youth, children and women's groups; as a counselor for an inner-city crisis center; as an editor of two state-wide public policy and issue-related newsletters and involved in business and party organizations and PTA.

Personal Views: Lois is committed to making government accountable to the people by reducing waste, excessive taxes and regulation for individuals and businesses. She believes we must have property tax reform, balanced environmental policies, increase local control of education, bring more state education dollars to classrooms, provide a good basic education in a disciplined setting where teachers are free to teach, and send the message that crime doesn't pay - even the first time - to adults and juveniles alike.
