

Peninsula Detachment Crime Alert

12/13/06 – Series of Vandalisms in Shore Acres Area

Between 7:00 pm on 12/9/06 and 5:00 pm the following day, five vandalisms occurred in the Shore Acres residential area near Gig Harbor in unincorporated Pierce County.

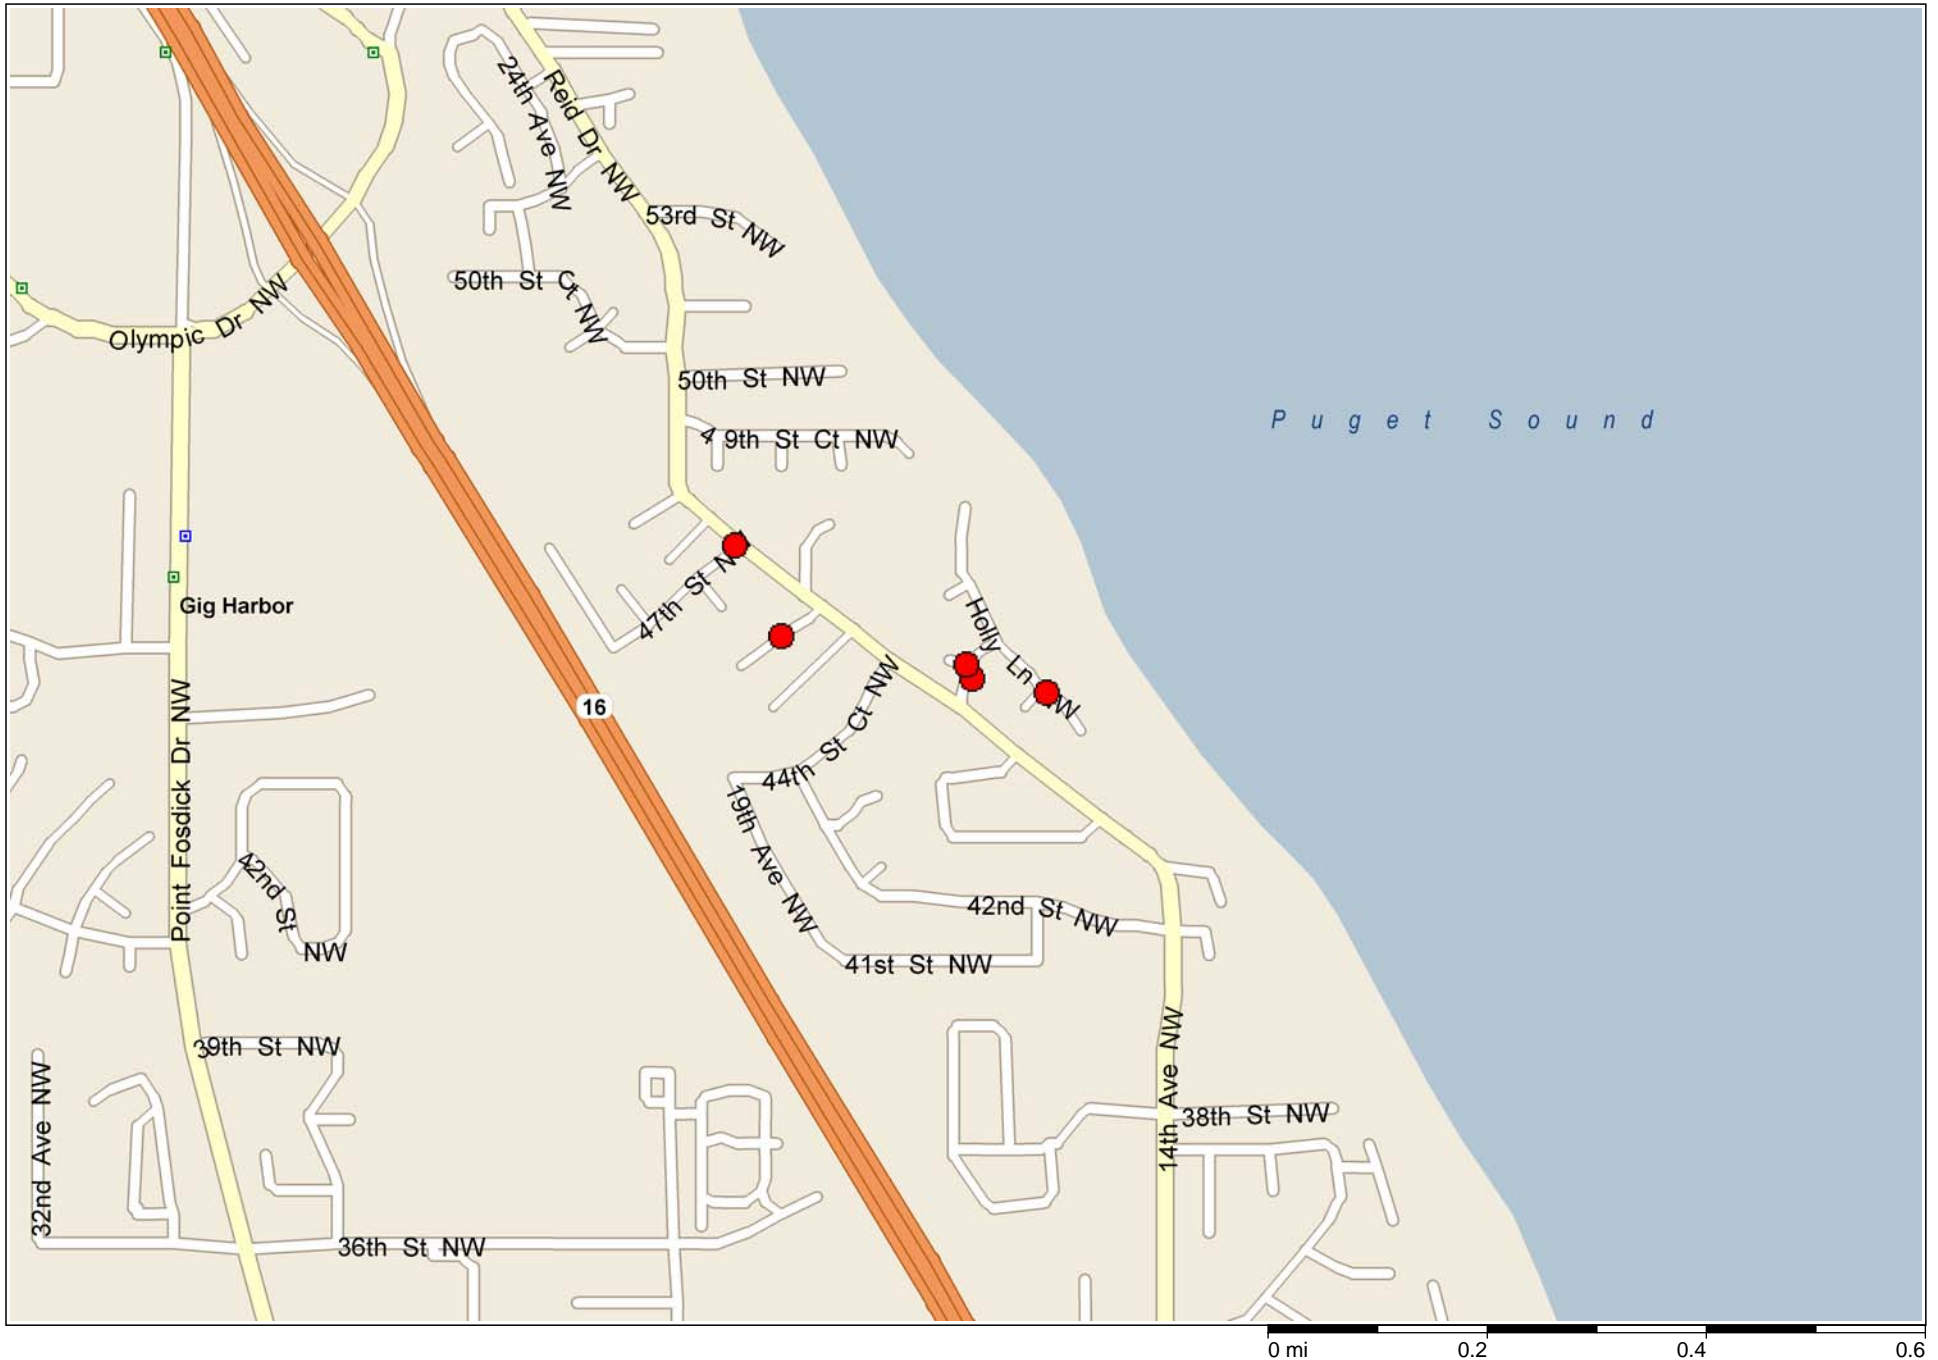

Damage included swastikas and Fourth Reich references spray painted in yellow on vehicles, street signs and on buildings. In two of the reports, wires for lighting were cut into several pieces. In another incident, a window was broken during the vandalism.

During one incident, at 2:30 am, a faded dark blue and light blue 1960s pickup truck was seen parked in the area. The truck had a pipe style rack mounted in its bed. A white male was observed running to the vehicle before he drove the truck away.

If you have any information about these incidents, please call the Peninsula Detachment at 253-798-4940 during normal business hours.

If you notice anything suspicious within your own neighborhood, please call 9-1-1 or the non-emergency number at 253-798-4721, option 1.
