

Donation Acceptance

WE ACCEPT DONATIONS

Donations are accepted at the retail warehouse. Donations will be reviewed for appropriateness for the ReHarvest Center. The donating party will receive a tax deductible receipt for their donation to the ReHarvest Center.

The ReHarvest Center reserves the right to decline certain donations. For a more detailed list of appropriate donations, please see the following list.

DROP LOCATIONS:

Reharvest Center: 1113 St. Paul Ave.
Tacoma, WA 98421
<http://maps.google.com/maps?rls=ig&hl=en&tab=w>

City of Tacoma Land Fill: 3510 S Mullen St
Tacoma, WA 98409-2200

ACCEPTED DONATIONS LIST

Lumber, Trim, and Siding

- Dimensional lumber: minimum length 4 ft, de-nailed, and in reusable condition.
- Trim: minimum length 5 ft, de-nailed, and in reusable condition.
- Plywood and paneling: de-nailed, 4 ft by 4 ft or larger.
- Siding: minimum length 3 ft, de-nailed and in reusable condition.

No vinyl or wood composite siding.

Cannot accept: Items with peeling or chalking paint, mold, dry rot, asbestos, creosote or with insect, rodent or other pest infestations.

Doors

- Interior and exterior residential doors in reusable condition.
- Carriage-style garage doors.
- Hollow core doors: pre-hung, unpainted.
- Mirrored doors framed with metal.
- Solid-core doors.
- Complete door-jam sets, door tracking.
- Aluminum screen doors.
- Bi-fold and bi-pass doors.
- Shower doors: clean, framed with metal and complete with track.

The Reharvest Center is a division of the non profit Metropolitan Development Council. It's program mission is to create job training and green building education opportunities within the community by salvaging usable building materials through the deconstruction of buildings and receiving donated items from the public. We make these materials available for sale to the public at low affordable prices.

- Sliding patio doors: thermal insulated with frame intact.
- Residential security doors: with or without complete frame.

Cannot accept: Roll-up garage doors (except at staff discretion). Doors that are bowed, warped, or have peeling paint, drastic alterations, rot, failing seals or asbestos.

Windows

- Double (thermal insulated) pane vinyl and wood windows:
32 sq ft or smaller with clear (non-foggy) panes and intact seals.
Larger than 32 sq ft accepted at staff discretion.
- Double (thermal insulated) pane aluminum windows:
20 sq ft or smaller with seals intact.
- Single pane wood windows (with or without frame):
32 sq ft or smaller accepted if it is divided light, casement opening or specialty.
Larger than 32 sq ft accepted at staff discretion.
- Blinds & curtain rods: wooden only.
- Shutters. • Window screens.

Cannot accept: Windows w/ crumbling glazing or peeling paint, plastic curtain rods, plastic/metal blinds, curtains, drapes, roll-up shades. Broken seals on double pane.

Glass and Mirror

- Glass and mirrors up to 3 ft. x 5 ft. without glazing, paint, glue or backing.
Straight edges must be taped.

Cannot accept: Mirrors, unframed thermal panes, glass or mirror that is tempered, glue-backed, broken, has glazing or with jagged edges.

Kitchen and Bathroom Cabinets

- Full kitchen cabinet sets, individual cabinets and vanities—complete with doors and drawers—and free of damage beyond simple repair.
Particleboard/melamine cabinets--must be in reusable condition without any damage or delamination.
- Loose cabinet drawers and doors accepted if made from solid wood.
- Shelves—solid wood.
- Complete shelf units & bookshelves. Particleboard/melamine must be in reusable condition with no damage or delamination.

Cannot accept: cabinet shells, loose melamine drawers, doors or shelves.

Sinks

- All types of white, metallic, and neutral-colored sinks—must be free of chips, cracks, deep scratches or severe stains (exceptions: rare or vintage models).
- Wall mount sinks with wall bracket (if possible).
Accepted at staff discretion: Custom colors (avocado, blue, etc.)

Toilets

- Low flow (1.6 gallons/flush or less). Exception: some pre-1940 models. Clean and complete with lid and free of cracks or chips (exception: hairline cracks in vintage porcelain).

Accepted at staff discretion: Custom colors (avocado, blue, yellow, etc.)

Tubs

The Reharvest Center is a division of the non profit Metropolitan Development Council. It's program mission is to create job training and green building education opportunities within the community by salvaging usable building materials through the deconstruction of buildings and receiving donated items from the public. We make these materials available for sale to the public at low affordable prices.

- All types of white, and neutral-colored bathtubs—must be free of chips, peeling finish, deep scratches, heavy caulking, glues or severe stains. (Exceptions: claw foot tubs and rare or vintage models).
 - Jetted tubs with working motor.
 - Soaking tubs.
 - Shower stalls: one piece without cracks.
- Accepted at staff discretion: Custom colors (avocado, blue, etc.)
Cannot accept: Hot tubs or fiberglass tubs without motors.

Appliances, Furnaces, Woodstoves

- Appliances: less than 10 years old in perfect, working order (exception: specialty, vintage, and those in reusable condition with full kitchen cabinet set).
 - Furnaces: less than 10 years old in perfect working order.
 - Woodstoves: made post-1986 and DEQ or EPA certified.
 - Pellet stoves.
 - Fireplace covers, screens, tools, manufactured logs and log holders.
- Cannot accept: Baseboard and wall heaters, microwaves, thermostats, square heat ducting or fireplace heat blowers.

Carpet and Floor coverings

- Area rugs (sorry we do not accept rolled carpets as we are not able to clean them)
- Vinyl floor tiles: full boxes, 10 years or newer. • Linoleum: larger than 6 ft x 6 ft, 10 years or newer. • Marmoleum.
- Tile: whole, no chips or grout. Standard Sizes, Ceramic 15 sq. ft. or more, (exceptions: decorative, bull nose, specialty), stone tiles.
- Granite and marble slabs: 2 ft x 2 ft or larger.
- Wood flooring: 2 ft. or longer, denailed and in reusable condition, no glue or mastic.
- Manufactured wood flooring: new in the box, 10 sq. ft. or more.

Fencing

- Metal fencing. Chain link rolled up without debris. • Wooden fencing: without rot and in reusable condition.
- Gates.
- Plastic construction fencing.
- Wood and metal railings.

Pipes and Gutters

- Plastic and metal pipes and gutters: straight, 5 to 16 feet long, no attached connectors.

Lighting

- Light fixtures. • Glass shades and globes.
 - Florescent lights: 4 ft or smaller, residential voltage. If ballast, cannot contain PCBs.
 - Commercial current (277) fixtures accepted at staff discretion.
 - Ceiling fans with hanging brackets
- Cannot accept: light bulbs.

Miscellaneous Items

- Commercial items: accepted at staff discretion. • Sheetrock: full sheets (4 ft x 8 ft),

The Reharvest Center is a division of the non profit Metropolitan Development Council. It's program mission is to create job training and green building education opportunities within the community by salvaging usable building materials through the deconstruction of buildings and receiving donated items from the public. We make these materials available for sale to the public at low affordable prices.

ReHarvest Center - 1113 St. Paul Ave. - Tacoma, WA 98412 - (253) 531-5845 accepted at staff discretion.

- Hardware: door, plumbing, lighting, fasteners, hangers, etc. • Hand tools. Power tools accepted at staff discretion.
- Bricks: whole and without mortar. A small amount of mortar accepted at staff discretion.
- Cement blocks and pavers: whole and without mortar. • Ceiling tiles in box, 10 years or newer.
- Insulation. Batt insulation: clean and in bags. Rigid insulation. Duct insulation: new and contained in original box.
- Roofing. Three-tab and architectural shingles: new in bundles.
Wood shake roofing: denailed without rot.
Metal and fiberglass roofing in reusable condition.

Yard Gardening / Landscaping Materials

- bricks, borders, pavers, other usable landscaping material, tools and equipment

WE CANNOT ACCEPT MATERIALS CONTAINING HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES: Asbestos-containing materials, PCB'S, toxic or flammable products, batteries, contaminated plumbing, containers that may have held chemicals of any kind.

For more information on other reuse, recycling and salvage options contact the ReHarvest Center at (253) 531-5845.

Additional salvage, recycling and donation centers sources in Tacoma and Pierce County:

City of Tacoma Landfill : 3510 S Mullen St

Tacoma, WA 98409-2200

(253) 591-5418

<http://www.cityoftacoma.org>

ReStore :

Habitat for Humanity ReStore - Tacoma

(253) 779-8149

505 Puyallup Ave.

Tacoma, WA 98421

<http://www.tpc-habitat.org/pages/restore.htm>

Goodwill :

Multiple Donation Centers (See link below)

<http://tacomagoodwill.org/page.aspx?nid=18#Pierce>

United Way :

<http://www.uwpc.org/>

The Reharvest Center is a division of the non profit Metropolitan Development Council. It's program mission is to create job training and green building education opportunities within the community by salvaging usable building materials through the deconstruction of buildings and receiving donated items from the public. We make these materials available for sale to the public at low affordable prices.