

Puyallup Watershed

Low Impact Development Conference

Oct. 12, 2007

Sponsors:

Pierce County Water Programs
Washington Dept. of Ecology
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Puyallup River Watershed Council
Master Builders Association of Pierce County

Topics covered in Conference

1. Low Impact Development Tools

- Permeable Pavement, including concrete, asphalt and pavers
- Bio-retention and Rain Gardens
- Soil Strategies for Stormwater Management, Erosion Control and Landscape Success
- Seattle Green Roofs Performance Study

2. On-the-Ground Implementation of LID

- Planning and Site Design of Sustainable Projects
- Erosion and Sediment Control and LID Integration
- Long-term Maintenance of LID Systems

Topics covered in Conference

3. Case Studies

- LID Planning and Implementation in Pierce Co.
- Planning and Design: Applied LID Techniques
- Kitsap County Home Builders Retrofitting Site
- Processing LID Technology through the Entitlement Process

4. Facilitating and Building Demand for LID

- Making Regulations LID Friendly
- Demand for LID and Built-Green

5. Evaluation and Next Steps

- Benefits and Limitations of LID
- Panel Discussion

Low Impact Development Conference

The Meadow on the Hylebos
Low Impact Development - Demonstration Project

