$5 Million lawsuit against county dismissed

The Pierce County Prosecutor's Office secured a major victory in May when a $5 million lawsuit claiming false arrest and malicious prosecution was dismissed.

The lawsuit was filed by Lynn Dalsing, a woman previously charged with sex crimes against children. The Prosecutor's Office and Pierce County stood by their position that she was lawfully arrested and charged.

"We will always fight to protect children, fight to make our community safer, and fight for what's right," said Prosecutor Mark Lindquist. "As President Lincoln said, truth is the best vindication." Link to full story

Man convicted and sentenced to 34 years in 2006 cold-case murder

In April, 30 year old Brandon Lee Farmer was sentenced to 407 months in prison for the 2006 shooting death of Velma Tirado. In 2014, Tacoma Police Department cold-case detectives received a tip that led to Farmer's arrest. Earlier this month, a jury convicted Farmer of murder in the first degree...
