

PC EMS COUNCIL
TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE MINUTES
September 27, 2017 – 9:00

Attendance:

Membership Attendance Roster on File.

Call to Order

The meeting was called to order at 9:00 am by Patsy Maloney. Introductions were made around the room. Previous meeting minutes were provided, voted on and accepted as written.

Unfinished Business:

A. ESE Refresher Course Requirements

Norma stated that the ESE Refresher Work Group made a decision and a live ESE refresher course was conducted here. It was about 2 ½ hours in length. Angie also did one in Buckley. The State has come out with a partial online process. Norma displayed the online documents on the overhead screen, showing them as posted to the EMS Website, and briefly explaining how they are used. Chris Rock asked a question regarding the Skills Section and Norma said there is a form on the website for MSOs to affirm that the ESE's are competent and up to date on their skills.

New Business:

A. New SEI Candidate – Carissa Haber

Joe Koehler, from Pierce College, introduced her and gave her opportunity to talk about herself. She has been in EMS for almost 9 years in various counties, and is now working in Lewis County. Joe added that Pierce College requires candidate to teach every class. Carissa's IRAP application packet was reviewed, she was unanimously recommended for approval as a new SEI.

Unscheduled Business:

Norma informed everyone that she went to Good Sam's Base Station and videotaped it and put it in a drop box so it's available for viewing. She added that it will only be available for 30 days and then replaced with another Base Station video.

Karrie announced that Good Sam's upcoming Base Station will host Dr. Nichols as guest speaker. He will talk again on the subject of LVAD. Dan asked if they could stream it live and Karrie replied, yes.

Announcements:

Norma announced The WREMS Conference in Ocean Shores on March 23-25, 2018.

Bill Barber announced the Tacoma Trauma Conference on November 17.

Next meeting is November 29th. Patsy is excused from this meeting and Mike Newhouse will be the chair.

Adjournment:

Meeting Adjourned @ 9:22 am.